NEEDONM.ORG

For A Stronger Future Together

San Miguel County is a beautiful place to experience authentic southwestern culture and feel the ambiance of New Mexico at the junction between the Rocky Mountains and the eastern plains.

•1 Storrie Lake State Park

Camping, picnic sites, shelters, playground, and boating year round. Sailing, boating, watersports, fishing, and hiking are enjoyed by visitors.

- 3 Esequiel C de Baca Ln, Las Vegas, NM 87701
- (505) 425-7278

•2 Villanueva State Park

Camp or picnic in the shade of cottonwoods. Enjoy fishing, birding, wildflower viewing, or trails along canyon walls. The group shelter makes a great place for gatherings.

- 135 Dodge Dr., Villanueva, NM 87583
- (575) 421-2955

•3 Pecos National Historical Park

a cultural crossroads through which hunters and gatherers, traders, explorers, immigrants, soldiers, ranchers and tourists passed.

- Pecos, NM 87552
- (505) 757-7241

•4 Dwan Light Sanctuary A futuristic temple of light uses prisms and rainbows to create an atmosphere of peace.

- Forest 263 rd., Las Vegas, NM 87701
- (505) 454-4221

•5 Conchas Lake State Park

Two modern marinas have facilities for boating and fishing either from boats or on the rocky shoreline.

- 501 Bell Ranch rd., Conchas, NM 88416
- (575) 868-2270

• 6 Las Vegas Carnegie Public Library One of the many small-town libraries throughout the U.S. built with a grant from philanthropist Andrew Carnegie and was modeled after Thomas Jefferson's home, Monticello.

- 500 National Ave., Las Vegas, NM 87701
- (505) 426-3304

• 7 Sabinoso Wilderness This Wilderness area consists of canyons and steep-sided mesas with elevations ranging from 4,500 feet (1,400 m) to 6,000 feet (1,800 m).

- www.blm.gov/visit/sabinoso-wilderness-area
- (575) 758-8851

• 8 Starvation Peak Located on the Santa Fe Trail. Legend claims that Spanish settlers had been slaughtered or starved on this butte in colonial times.

- I-25, Between Pecos and Las Vegas
- www.nps.gov/places/starvation-peak

• 9 Las Vegas National Wildlife Refuge an important resting, feeding, and wintering area for migrating geese, ducks, and cranes. The Refuge is on a plateau in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains.

- 435 NM Highway 281, Mile Marker 4
- <https://www.fws.gov/refuge/las-vegas>
- (505) 425-3581

Terrain in the County varies from rugged 11,000'+ peaks in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains to open plains at less than 4,000' in the east. The Las Vegas Plateau and Glorieta Mesa represent distinct zones. The Pecos River and Canadian Rivers originate in the mountains and flow to the southeast.

• 10 Montezuma Hot Springs

Several soaking pools range from warm to hot. A large rock pool called "the lobster pot" is a very hot 120°. Another shaped like Africa is just above 100°.

- Six miles northwest of Las Vegas
